Chef Fred

Fred is a passionate cook who would love to share his passion of fine cuisine giving you pleasure. His passion and his offer are based on two main pillars: the gastronomy and oenology! He believes that true culinary art consists of the choice of ingredients. He grows himself a great variety of organic vegetables and fruits. He carefully conceives recipes, whether revisited classics or unexpected marriages, he ensures the staging of his dishes, the harmony in the sequence of dishes and the atmosphere of the evening and interaction with the guests.

As for oenology, leading an exceptional hedonist club, Fred will make you discover wines with a potential "best pick" and allow you a real tasting of insiders. As a knowledgeable amateur he will make sure you can share the specificities of the wines he has chosen for you.

The Menu

The menu will mainly be composed of seasonal ingredients. It could follow a theme, an ingredient, a culinary trend, a wine region...or something completely different like: a colour, music, ... Please inform us of any allergies and food intolerances when booking.
